

Young Folks Spark City Growth

Yorba Linda is a "young" city, not only in the number of years it has been incorporated, 8, but also in its population. Better than one third of the residents are under 18 years of age and the median age is 26.

These and many other interesting facts and statistics were gleaned from the special census conducted in January.

The present population is 23,266 which pegged the city as the fastest growing community in North Orange County. In a six year period Yorba Linda's population nearly doubled, from 11,856 to the new count.

This increase of slightly more than 11,400 persons was the largest gain in actual people and percentage wise of any city in the NOC area.

Of the 23,266 persons there is almost an even division between males and females with the former having a slight edge, 11,662 to 11,540. The city has 8,970 inhabitants under 18 years of age with the males again outnumbering the females, 4,594 to 4,367.

The edge shifts, however, in the 65 and over bracket where 422 of the 711 total figures are females, leaving a total of 288 males.

For some mysterious and unexplained reason the census listed a total 74 persons whose sex was "unknown".

Employment of Yorba Linda residents is high with 9,398 working. Here the males just about double the females, 6,277 to 3,121. The number not in the labor force comes to 12,252 with women bettering the males 7,679 to 4,573 which would reflect the preponderance of the under 18 age group. Unemployment is set at a low 3.13 percent.

Only 169 males and 125 females listed themselves as unemployed. The number of students 16 and over came to 1,230. Twenty eight persons were recorded as being in the military.

Population per household was placed at 3.57 persons living in units other than the 292 "trailers". When that figure of 1.91 per trailer was added in the overall population per household was set at 3.50.

The actual total income for families is somewhat inconclusive as 2,313 or 34.80% did not respond. Of those that did to this question the largest number, 1,043 or 15.69%, said the income is in the $15,000-$19,999 range.

The next highest number, 993, said they were realizing between $25,000-$49,999 followed closely by 954 who are bringing in $20,000-$24,999. Ninety three responded that their income is $50,000 or more.

Slightly more than 9% or 599 put total family income at $12,000-$14,999. The $8,000-$11,999 group had 366, the $5,000-$7,999 had 152, the $3,000-$4,999 had 70 and 51 said income was somewhere below $2,999.

Most monthly house payments are between $150-$249 according to 1,255 or 18.88% of the responses. Next highest percent was 14.64 or 973 paying $250-$299 per month. There are goodly numbers making higher payments on up the scale to the point where 70 respondents said they are making payments of $600 or more a month.

For those who rent payments range all the way from the $50-$59 per month to $400 or more a month. The two highest figures are 233 or 3.51 percent paying $200-$249 and 103 or 1.55% who pay $150-$199 monthly.

On both questions, concerning monthly payments and monthly rents there was a high percentage of no response, 22.31 and 9.28, respectively.

The question of number of rooms in living quarters ruled out bathrooms, porches, balconies, foyers, halls and half-rooms. Six, seven and five room homes ranked highest, in that order. Six rooms

Pickets At Post Office On Friday

The Yorba Linda Post Office has gained a dubious "honor," having been selected as one of the "key locations" throughout the State which will be picketed on Friday, April 23.

A communication from Branch 1100, National Association of Letter Carriers, revealed the picketing plan. It said the purpose of the demonstration will be "to bring to the attention of the public the reasons for the deteriorating Postal Service."

According to the letter to this newspaper, "These conditions have been brought on by run away inflation and the current budget crunch. A resultant hiring freeze has forced mandatory overtime and the threat of cancelled vacations upon these workers."

The Branch, which is headquartered in Orange, claims that "carrier routes have been lengthened beyond 8 hours. Disability retirements, on the job injuries and early retirements have more than doubled with the remaining workers forced to absorb the work load."

Demonstrators will seek signatures on petitions that will support legislation designed to alleviate the crisis. They will also call on the public to create dialogue by contacting the news media, elected representatives, etc., to tell them what type of Postal Service they want.

The letter was signed by Thomas F. Bauer, media coordinator.

Chamber Membership Meeting

Thursday night, April 29, will be a vitally important one for all merchants and business folks of Yorba Linda, as the Chamber of Commerce hosts two key figures to outline two top subjects, "Proposition 13," said to be the most important, single piece of proposed legislation in California; and the problem of theft in our local stores.

The first topic will be covered by key representatives of the Southern California Edison Company, and the second, by Police Sgt. Larry Baker of the Y.L.A. Brea Police Department. "The need for local business and government folks to hear these presentations is second to nothing else of key importance," says Chamber Executive Manager Bill OpDyke and Chamber President Susan Brown.

"The Chamber is very pleased to offer these opportunities as part and parcel of its long string of services to the community. It will watch with great interest the size of the turnout for this event as a gauge to potential future general, mass meetings," adds OpDyke.

The meeting is being held in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Yorba Linda District Library, and the first session will start promptly at 7:30 p.m.; the second session at approximately 8:30 p.m. Admittance of Chamber members is free; non-members, $1 per person.

Commission Candidate Hints Legal Action

by JIM ARKISON

Legal action is being contemplated by one of the persons who filed an application for the two Planning Commission vacancies in the wake of unorthodox action by the City Council in replacing Irwin Fried and Anton Groot.

Steven Stredler told the Star that he was never contacted after filing his application and expressed his surprise at not being interviewed.

Stredler cited his credentials as making him a viable candidate for the commission. He said he is a "professional planner. I am manager of Facilities Planning for Hunt Wesson Foods."

The disgruntled applicant declared he would consult with his lawyer as to what steps to take and to check into the "legal obligations (of the Council) to interview all applicants."

Also expressing criticism and disappointment was Mrs. Kathryn Starr. She had attended the City Council meeting at which Mrs. Carolyn Ewing, former mayor, and Attorney Robert Clemmer were named by the council to the Planning Commission.

Mrs. Starr, a columnist for this newspaper, said she was at the meeting for the hearing on the oil well tax and was "astounded to find several commission candidates there."

"I didn't even know they were going to make this appointment that night," Mrs. Starr contended. "I don't think they abided by the established rules."

"Some do better in writing and some make more of an impression orally," she said.

City Administrator Art Simonian claimed that there was a lot of "misunderstanding" over the selection system as established by the Council.

Twenty five persons initially filed applications. Four were ruled out as non-residents. From the list of 21 each of the five members of the Council gave Simonian five names each.

Eliminating duplicate names Simonian prepared a list of 11 candidates for Council consideration. Some of the 11 were interviewed by individual councilmen. Groot said he interviewed those he didn't know but who's written applications impressed him.

The final 11 were invited to the Council meeting last week but only nine appeared and one left before being interviewed. After lengthy discussion on the method of voting Mrs. Ewing was selected on the first ballot. The voting then became complex and went on for several minutes before Clemmer got enough votes to fill the other position.

Program Approved

As the city's share in a pilot program aimed at providing an educational and recreational summer program for trainable mentally retarded (TMR) youths, Yorba Linda City Council Monday night approved allocations of $717 to cover participation by six residents.

The program, to be conducted jointly by Yorba Linda, Brea, and Placentia, is proposed for a five-week period from Aug. 9 through Sept. 10, City Administrator Arthur Simonian explained. Participation will be limited to youths under 21.

According to Simonian, seven youngsters presently living in the city would qualify for the program. Four are currently attending a Saturday TMR program offered by Placentia.

The proposal passed 4-1, Councilman Dale T. Chaput casting the no vote.

"No one wants to vote against something like this," Chaput said, "but I would like to see a comparison (of per-person costs for other recreational programs) first."

"Of course this will cost more than other programs," replied Councilman Whit Cromwell. "It's a token of our good faith in trying to understand the problems of groups like this."

Funds as approved will be allocated in the city's 1976-77 budget.

In other action, the council adopted a resolution ordering abatement of weeds where necessary and awarded the contract for the job to Edwin Webber, Inc., which firm has performed the work previously and was the lowest of

YMCA Hits $10,000 Goal

The Yorba Linda YMCA Extension needed to raise $10,000 in Sustaining Membership contributions to maintain its growing program in Yorba Linda for 1976.

Through the hard work of 18 volunteers who solicited contributions the Yorba Linda office hit the $10,000 mark on April 9, five weeks after the start of the drive.

Director Gary Huff states that he "is elated over the response of the Yorba Linda community. It shows that we have an active, concerned city. And I'm especially delighted with the support shown by the businesses of Yorba Linda."

Over 80 businesses, organizations and professionals donated to the drive.

Jack Myers of B&B Pharmacy received a special "Service to Youth" award for raising over $6,000 working alone and in teams with Phil Paxton and Gary Huff. Paxton received a "Service to Youth" award for raising over $1,000 and Carl Woodard received a quota buster award for raising over $500.

Alan Stewart, chairman of the entire North Orange County YMCA Drive, which includes Yorba Linda, and Dr. Russell Ewing, chairman of the Yorba Linda campaign both praised the efforts of all the workers and especially that of Myers.

Steward and Dr. Ewing, along with Bob Clemmer, Yorba Linda YMCA Board chairman, also put in many long hours in organizing the campaign from the beginning.

B&B Flags Reprieved

Embattled Bob Booz, owner of B&B Chevrolet on Imperial Highway, wrestled to another draw with the Planning Commission last week on the continuing dispute over the flags, banners, fluttering or reflective devices.

The commission continued a public hearing on reconsideration of his variance until the June 16 meeting when a staff report will be submitted by Planning Director Phil Paxton.

That report will contain a review of automobile dealer signs in surrounding cities and staff recommendations.

Booz had commented that it was his understanding that he, Chamber of Commerce representatives, Beautification Committee representatives and city staff, were supposed to work on such a report.

After the hearing at which he supported Booz, Bill OpDyke, Chamber Executive director, said he thought such a subcommittee was to have been formed but had heard nothing on it.

Booz defended his signs as necessary to attract business and said the sign ordinance was so restrictive in this respect that it was

Balloon Race, Community Fair

To help celebrate the Bicentennial Yorba Linda has hit on an old fashioned and novel device. The city and the committee have challenged north Orange county cities to a Hot Air Balloon Race for May 29.

The challenge was accepted today by the city of Cypress, according to Mrs. Millie Krantz, chairwoman of the Yorba Linda Bicentennial Committee.

"We have also challenged Fullerton, Brea, Placentia, Orange and Villa Park," she said, "and expect to hear officially from them shortly. All have expressed some interest. Each city will receive prize money, even the last place," she said.

"The purpose of the race is to raise money for the various Bicentennial projects." In Yorba Linda the entry fee is being raised by public spirited individuals and organizations, not by the city.

While the balloons are speeding (?) toward their destinations Yorba Linda will be having a 1776-style Country Fair at Nixon Park. Theme of the fair is to demonstrate everyday living and occupations during Colonial and early Frontier days.

The Fair is sponsored by the Y.L.

Paint Hydrants For '76 Bicen

Fire hydrants in Yorba Linda will soon be decorated in red, white and blue bicentennial motif, Pete Royere, operations manager for the Yorba Linda County Water District, announced this week.

The water district recently authorized the project and Royere said it also has the blessing of the county fire marshal.

Two important concerns are that the fire hydrant must remain conspicuous and good quality oil base enamels must be used.

"Several cities across the U.S. have already conducted similar Bicentennial Committee and will be managed by the Yorba Linda Yodelers 4H club as a Community Pride Project.

The Cypress entry will race in a "two-legged hop" taking off in Cypress and landing at Fullerton College campus where the Yorba Linda balloon and others will be taking off. The plan is to then land at or near a fixed point in Yorba Linda.

When the balloonists land they will be taken to the park by antique cars and they will receive trophies and the cities their prizes.

"Entry forms have been sent to every organization we could locate in Yorba Linda and to each of the cities challenged to the race," said Mrs. Kathleen Huff, co-organizational leader of the Yodelers 4H club.

"However, this country was built by individuals, not organizations as such, and we will welcome applications for booths from individuals who may wish to display their skills also in such things as weaving, painting, cabinet making, carving or you name it. Call me at 528-2636 for information. Entries will be definitely closed by April 30 and before if we run out of space."

Entertainment will be provided by community groups and, if available, by a Marine Corps band.

projects in observance of the nation's bicentennial," Royere said, "and they have proven to be very popular."

Royere, who is a member of Yorba Linda's Bicentennial Committee asked that property owners who have fire hydrants on their land clip all grass and shrubbery around the hydrants to aid in the decoration project.

Persons interested in obtaining a permit to paint a hydrant should contact Royere at the District office at 4622 Plumosa Drive.

Editorial Opinion

Tight Rope Act

There may not have been an outright violation of the Brown Act but in the minds of many observers the Yorba Linda City Council did a tight rope walking act around the edges of the Act in its procedures for filling two vacancies on the Planning Commission.

The Brown Act, which has long required that councils conduct city business before the public except in certain cases dealing with personnel and major litigation, was recently amended to clarify discussions and actions regarding appointments by councils of persons to boards and commissions.

The provisions of the codes by which council conducts business would have left the Commission with two vacancies for a longer period than desirable as the governmental body has been faced with an extraordinarily heavy work load. The Planning Director was concerned that with only three members the Commission would be unable to function if one of the three were not able to make a meeting.

Several suggestions on how to make swift appointments were advanced. The Council opted for one which would speed up the process and it received the blessing of the City Attorney as being within the scope of the Brown Act. It is this opinion which is subject to question.

Twenty one persons interested in serving on the Commission filed applications and, under the plan adopted by the Council, got the impression that they were all to receive equal consideration which included being interviewed.

However, it did not work out that way. Ten of the 21 were eliminated after their written applications were reviewed. Of the remaining 11, eight were interviewed in an open Council session. Two could not make the meeting and one had to leave before he could be heard.

At least two non-interviewed candidates have publicly expressed their displeasure with the method employed by the Council. One of them has, as reported elsewhere in this edition, talked of investigating the legality of the Council's methods and actions.

When the Council invites applications and urges people to serve on boards and commissions it behooves them to give everyone equal consideration. "Mickey Mouse" maneuvering in making appointments is going to turn off a lot of civic minded persons from giving serious thought to serving their city.

The Brown Act was changed because councils in many places have been secretive about making appointments to boards and commissions. Skirting the Act seriously weakens the integrity of the Council.

homes were noted by 24.80% or 1,648, seven rooms by 22.18% or 1,474 and five rooms by 15.89% or 1,056.

There were 669 eight room living quarters and 431 with 9 rooms or more.

Yorba Linda is basically a two car per family city with 35% falling in this bracket. There are 1,299 one car families. The count included cars, company cars, vans, campers and trucks but excluded motorcycles, boats and bicycles and was based on the number of vehicles parked overnight at a location.

Contrary to the popular belief 87.07 or 5,787 properties have no horses on them. However the number ranges from one horse, 133, to nine or more horses, 5, on a single property.

The ethnic origin or descent of the head of the household is preponderantly non-minority white in Yorba Linda. That figure of the total was 79.07% or 5,297. Mexican heritage being bilingual of monolingual English is 2.69%. All other categories were less than one percent.

There were three questions dealing with services. Asked to rate the current level of service from the Police Department the highest percentage of respondents, 28.45%, said it is average.

Another 15.59% considers it above average with 20.93% rating it keeping other auto dealers off Imperial Highway and from coming into the city. He warned that Yorba Linda is losing thousands of dollars in potential sales taxes.

Also continued to the June 16 meeting were joint hearings on a conditional use permit and a variance for a commercial building on Yorba Linda Blvd., between Imperial and Valencia, requested by Don Schug.

At issue was a "hole in the roof" over non-office space on the second floor of the building. It was added to the plans to permit the variance for off-street parking.

The hole, said to be about six feet by 10 feet, would have applied to a stairway and hallway and thus reduce the square footage of building under roof.

Commissioners found this interpretation difficult to comprehend. They also felt that the building, as planned, is too big for the piece of property it would be constructed on. In addition, the Beautification Committee pleaded for relief of a blank east wall of the building.

A representative of Schug asked for the continuance so the project "could go back on the drawing board."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Since taking office I have received three anonymous letters regarding some of the positions taken by me on the City Council. One of these was a nicely written letter without profanities and raising some questions that I would have liked to answer directly. Since no address was given however, I would like to use this column to answer that individual.

Dear Concerned Citizen:

In any type of government, those individuals serving their constituents, are called upon to make many excellent. Only 2.27% feels police service is below average and 3.61% rate it as poor. Almost 20% have not opinion.

When the same question was asked about fire Department service the responses were similar but excellent received the largest percentage, 20.93. Average was 18.88% and above average 17.86. Again, below average and poor were very small percentages, 2.27 and 1.11, respectively. Almost 25% had no opinion.

The preferred method of payment to finance public parks is, according to the answers received, a bond issue. This is preferred by 26.86%. Another 12.76% would use a city tax. A citywide assessment district was favored by 8.56% while 3.25% opted for a utility tax. No parks are desired by 4.56% but 27.69% had no opinion.

In submitting the report to the City Council the Planning Department noted that in general, Yorba Linda will benefit from the census. The last official estimate was 20,700 in 1975.

"This is an advantage since many state revenues to the city, such as gas taxes, are based on the amount of population certified by D.O.F."

Museum Kickoff

Section 1777.5, as amended, requires the Contractor or Subcontractor employing tradesmen in any apprenticeship occupation to apply to the joint apprenticeship committee nearest the site of the public works project and which administers the apprenticeship program in that trade for a certificate of approval. The certificate will also fix the ratio of apprentices to journeymen that will be used in the performance of the contract. The ratio of apprentices to journeymen in such cases shall not be less than one to five except:

A. When unemployment in the area of coverage by the joint apprenticeship committee has exceeded an average of 15 percent in the 30 days prior to the request for certificate, or

B. When the number of apprentices in training in the area exceeds a ratio of one to five, or

C. When the trade can show that it is replacing at least 1/30 of its membership through apprenticeship training on an annual basis statewide or locally, or

D. When the Contractor provides evidence that he employs registered apprentices on all of his contracts on an annual average of not less than one apprentice to eight journeymen.

The Contractor is required to make contributions to funds established for the administration of apprenticeship programs if he employs registered apprentices or journeymen on any apprenticeship trade on such contracts and if other Contractors on the public works site are making such contributions.

The Contractor and any subcontractor under him shall comply with the requirements of Sections 1777.5 and 1777.6 in the employment of apprentices.

Information relative to apprenticeship standards, wage schedules, and other requirements may be obtained from the Director of Industrial Relations, ex-officio the Administrator of Apprenticeship, San Francisco, California, or from the Division of Apprenticeship Standards and its branch offices.

The bidder must submit with his proposal cash cashier's check, certified check, or bidder's bond, payable to the Yorba Linda County Water District, for an amount equal to at least ten percent (10%) of the amount of said bids, as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into the proposed contract if the same is awarded to him, and in event of failure to enter into such contract said cash, cashier's check, certified check or bond shall become the property of the District.

If the District awards the contract to the next lowest bidder, the amount of the lowest bidder's security shall be applied by the District to the difference between the low bid and the second lowest bid, and the surplus, if any, shall be returned to the lowest bidder.

'Angels' Needed

In an effort to provide greater service to cancer patients throughout the county, the Orange County Unit of the American Cancer Society is looking for volunteer drivers for their "Angels on Wheels" program.

The program provides transportation for cancer patients who must go to doctor's offices, hospitals or clinics for treatment, but do not have access to a car. The volunteer Angels are people who provide that transportation.

All that is needed to be an Angel is an insured automobile, a California driver's license and a little free time. Although the Orange County unit has 145 volunteer drivers, there is a greater number of patients than drivers.

Anyone interested in the program, either as patients or as volunteers, can contact the cancer society at 752-8600.

Piano Recital

The piano students of Dorothy Foster recently gave a Spring Recital for an audience of their family and friends. The program, held in Mrs. Foster's Yorba Linda home, included music from the baroque, classical, romantic and contemporary periods of music.

Participating in the program were Debra Brewer, Carol Foster, William Foster, Keri Hansen, Sherri Terling, Pam Terling, Cheryl Okamura, Pearl Okamura of Yorba Linda, Scott Bartley, Susan Bartley of Placentia and Dave Lawrence of Tustin.

Crusaders Campout

Thirty three members of the Crusaders from the Yorba Linda Friends Church enjoyed a "campout" recently in the Coachella Valley.

On a Friday night everyone sat around the campfire to eat, sing to a guitar accompaniment, listen to the coyotes howling, dogs barking and admiring a full moon.

After lunch the next day most of the group returned home, promising to repeat the adventure in the fall.

Sixty members of the same group, who call themselves the "Oldies But Goodies," met for a pre-Easter dinner on Friday, Apr. 9 in the social hall of the church.

Ladies made and decorated hats which the men modeled. Prizes were given for the prettiest and most original. Wayne Rich closed the evening by relating experiences of his recent trip to Guatemala to help in the rebuilding following the recent earthquake.

Rehearsals will begin the week of May 10 and will be conducted at Katella High School, 2200 East Wagner, Anaheim, on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7 to 10 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 to 4 p.m.

Questions concerning auditions for "The Music Man" may be referred to Patsy Ray at the Anaheim Parks, Recreation and the Arts Department, 533-5278.
